

Deborah Neal is an Educational Support Professional (Parra-Professional) at Bob Mathis Elementary School and has been with the Dekalb County School System for 13 years. She has been married 27 years to Perry Neal and they have one daughter (Danielle Sherie Neal). Deborah works with fourth and fifth grade inter-related special needs students. She also works with the Chess Club, Sunshine Committee, Theater Club and tutors students in her spare time.

Deborah is an active member of the Decatur Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. and a member of the Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc., Decatur Silhouettes. She is also a member of Beulah Missionary Baptist Church, where she is an usher and helps with the Girl scouts. She has an outgoing personality and comes to work with a contagious smile and exciting energy every day. Deborah believes that every child can learn, regardless of their disability.